

LONE TREE
STABLES

Suzannah K. Wise brings to Lone Tree Stables expert knowledge and experience in equine facility management, elite horse sales and training, international and national dressage competition, mixed with a true love of teaching students and working with horses.

Suzannah is a FEI Gold, Silver and Bronze medalist, a top 15 finisher at the U.S. Dressage

Finals, a 2014 Equine Affair Versatile Horse & Rider Challenge selected rider, a Multi Highpoint and Series Champion USDF/USEF rider and winner of numerous state and national Dressage Championships.

As a former top U25 rider, Suzannah has over 20 years of experience in national USDF syndicated competitions with numerous JR/YR and Professional Championships. She was one of only 25 riders selected for the United States Dressage Federation Youth Development Program.

In addition to her riding career, Suzannah has attained a Bachelor of Science in Allied Health Sciences a secondary minor in Psychology GVSU Class of 2015. She is a current and former brand ambassador for several top international equestrian companies.

To date, Suzannah has been featured in Heels Down Magazine, Young Rider, and other prominent equestrian magazines over the last decade. In addition to her riding achievements, prior to coming to LTS she worked in management and training at some of top equine facilities in the nation.